

Athanasios Laskaridis Family Announcement

On January 2021, substantial stakeholders majority and total management control of the “Hellenic Hotels Company- LAMPSA SA” has been taken over by the family of Athanassios K. Laskaridis. Investors and Stock Exchange Authorities were informed thoroughly about these internal changes and transactions, in a timely manner. In full respect of the principles, ethics and vision of the 100-year long presence of “Hellenic Hotels Company- LAMPSA SA”, along with the Company’s historic and symbolic value for Greece and Greek Tourism, Athanassios K. Laskaridis family is committed to drive the Company in a new era, aiming to further establish its status as a leading corporate entity in the Greek and International Travel and Tourism Sector, thus enhancing its considerable contribution to the Greek Economy and its role in strengthening the image of Greece, as a top quality destination globally.